Chapter 1 by Manda

Once upon a time there was a young girl her name was Narissa. She was the nicest person on earth. She wanted to be a nice person but she also wanted to be brilliant. She was also the most beautiful girl in all of the land, but she didn't care if she was beautiful. She didn't like her stepmother very much. Her stepmother was evil, wicked, and hated everyone that got in the way of her evil plan to take over the kingdom. I have already told you too much. On the bright side Narissa had two wonderful stepsisters, one mean as could be stepmother, and one especially brilliant father.

Chapter 2 by Luke Meyers

One sunny afternoon, Narissa was visiting her father, playing her harp and singing the songs she had practiced for him. He swayed contentedly to the lilting melody. Their reverie was interrupted by a loud clamor from the adjoining room. Marennia, the wicked queen, stormed in. Behind her, as always, trailed her conniving familiar Jackmouth.

"Husband! Do you have any idea what that little twerp has gotten up to?" Marennia roared at the King. She held up a...
